

AMERICA AND THE WORLD NEWSPAPER HEADLINES

SSUSH14 The student will explain America's evolving relationship with the world at the turn of the twentieth century.

Your task is to create newspaper headlines for the topics below. Keep in mind that newspaper headlines are written to hook readers into reading the paper. Rhyming, alliteration, and play on words are common ways writers create snappy newspaper headlines. Be creative!

In addition, write a brief description about what each article would be about in 2-3 sentences.

Submit your headlines and headline descriptions in a document. Listed below are the topics you must use to create your headlines. Number your headlines and descriptions accordingly.

1. Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882
2. Spanish-American War
3. War in the Philippines
4. Roosevelt Corollary
5. American intervention in Latin America and the construction of the Panama Canal

AMERICA AND THE WORLD GRADING CRITERIA _____/100

Newspaper Headlines address all topics _____/30

Newspaper Headlines are creative and emphasize an important aspect of each topic to pique the interest of readers _____/35

Descriptions of articles provide accurate information to express the significance of each topic _____/35