

PROFILE PICTURE

Create a picture of your historical figure. (5 points)

EVENT

Include time and place, created by, and general info. (5 points)

Remember this is like an e-vite to an event not a list of events that occurred during the lifetime of your historical figure.

FRIENDS LIST

Create a list of friends that belong to your historical figure. These can be people who think alike, who worked together, etc. These friends will post at least four comments to your two status updates to the right. Your friends need pictures just like the real Facebook. (10 points)

TITLE (5 points)

This can be a quotation by your historical figure, but it should not be the name of your figure.

INFORMATION (40 points)

- Basics (location, leader, year group started)
- Philosophy
- Favorite quote(s)
- Entertainment (music, art, books)
- Activities and interests

WALL (30 points)

- Include 2 status updates and at least 4 comments from friends

Pic

STATUS UPDATE #1

Create a status update for your historical figure. It can be a quotation, statement, question, observation, etc. It must be something relevant that helps us understand your historical figure.

pic

Comments

Friends must comment on your status
--Must be insightful and relevant to get full credit

pic

STATUS UPDATE #2

Create a status update for your historical figure. It can be a quotation, statement, question, observation, etc. It must be something relevant that helps us understand your historical figure.

Pic

Comments

Friends must comment on your status
--Must be insightful and relevant to get full credit

LINKS (5 points)

Where you did you get your information? Include at least two sources.

Find credible sources
AND NO WIKIPEDIA.