

GIVE THANKS FOR APUSH EXTRA CREDIT!

Choose an option from each section of the learning menu to earn extra credit over Thanksgiving Break. Please turn in a hard copy of all assignments at once (with the exception of the Great Thanksgiving Listen oral history project). Attach this menu to the top of your assignments. Circle each of your choices on this menu. Extra credit is due when we return from Thanksgiving Break.

THE LAST DAY LATE WORK AND REMEDIATION WILL BE ACCEPTED IS DECEMBER 11th.

Appetizer

CREATE A 6 DEGREES OF SEPARATION POSTER.

Choose from the following sets of events to illustrate six degrees of separation by five intermediary connections. Explain your degrees of separation in complete sentences and include an image for each event/ person/ idea, etc. used to make your connections.

Option 1:
Where to begin?
--The Louisiana Purchase
Where to end?
--Second Great Awakening

Option 2:
Where to begin?
--Construction of the Erie Canal
Where to end?
--Seneca Falls Convention

Option 3:
Where to begin?
--Jeffersonian Democracy
Where to end?
--Jacksonian Democracy

Option 4:
Where to begin?
--Henry Clay
Where to end?
--Susan B. Anthony

Option 5:
Where to begin?
--Aaron Burr
Where to end?
--Ralph Waldo Emerson

sixdegreesofhistory

"Six Degrees of Separation" is the theory that anyone on the planet can be connected to any other person on the planet through a chain of acquaintances that has no more than five intermediaries.

CREATE A MATRIX OF TURNING POINTS FOR UNIT 4.

Find the events that make this unit a highly transformative time for the United States. Identify at least 10 turning points from unit 4. In a table, or by another organizational method, define the causes, description, effects, and historical context of each of your chosen turning points. See the example below. Write in complete sentences and use content vocabulary in your descriptions.

Event	Cause	Description	Effects	Historical Context
Spain's claim to Florida	Influenced by Henry the Navigator, Portugal wanted to open its maritime routes with India and break the Muslim monopoly of the region.	Spain reached the Cape of Good Hope and sailed to India to open up the spice trade.	Spain Portugal's trade power and subsequent rivalry led to the Columbian Exchange which changed the world economically, culturally, and socially.	Spain's terms of Exploration to Columbus, Bartolomeu Diaz, and Vasco da Gama.
Columbian voyage	King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella wanted to find a new route to India.	sailed from Spain with the Pinta, the Niña, and the Santa Maria. "Though the globe was to be actual size and scale across the Americas instead of India."	Established the Columbian Exchange which changed the world economically, culturally, and socially.	Competition for control of trade between Spain and Portugal. Columbus, Cortes, and Pizarro.
Treaty of Tordesillas	Columbus's voyage to the New World caused some fear and led rights in the Americas. The Pope split the New World between Spain and Portugal through a north-south 100 line.	The Pope's decision split Portugal, who had monopolized trade with Spain to the east, on the west. The line of demarcation was changed to 370 degrees west of the Cape de Verde.	Created increased conflict between Spain and Portugal, and Catholics and Protestants, and proved that the Europeans had no claim on the Americas.	Columbus voyage - rivalry with Spain and Portugal over trade rights. Religious Disputation.
Protestant Reformation	led by Martin Luther, people were upset with abuses of the Catholic Church, particularly the sale of indulgences and the King wanted a divorce.	The split between the Catholic Church which created the Church of England.	Created two distinct types of Christianity, led to the decline of feudalism, led to ideas of democracy.	Historical to the New World because it inspired some devout Protestants, Puritans, to look for more religious freedoms.
Protestantism and the Virginia Company	English and the Virginia Company investors were hungry for wealth, gold, and were inspired by the success of the Spanish Empire.	led by The Virginia Company and John Rolfe, started by King James I. First successful English settlement in the New World.	led the tone of English settlement in the New World. Tobacco which greatly influenced slavery in the New World.	related to the Spanish Armada. Colonization of the Americas, show Americans and the West India Company.

CREATE A SERIES OF COMIC STRIPS

to illustrate the following key developments from Unit 4. Choose five of the topics listed below and develop a comic to "tell the story" for each. Your comic must be creatively illustrated, colored, and include captions/ speech bubbles where appropriate.

1. The War of 1812
2. The Era of Good Feelings
3. The Rise of the Second Party system as exhibited by the election of 1824
4. The Market Revolution
5. The Second Great Awakening
6. The Development of Reform Movements
7. Experiments with Utopia
8. Antebellum Cultural Developments (literature & art)
9. The ideal of Manifest Destiny
10. Early Sectional Tension in the Antebellum Era

There are comic strip templates available in the 'Documents' tab on the Blog.

CREATE FLASH CARDS FOR THE MAJOR VOCABULARY FROM THE FIRST FOUR UNITS.

Your flash cards may not be digitally created in any way. List the word on one side of the card and fully define the term on the reverse. Your cards will be assessed on the quality and completeness of your definitions. Complete sentences are not necessary, but make sure your thoughts are clear and complete.

UNIT 1:

Age of Discovery Bartolome de Las Casas Columbian Exchange
Encomienda Juan Gines de Sepulveda Mestizo Mulatto

UNIT 2:

Anglicization Ann Hutchinson Bacon's Rebellion Chesapeake
Dominion of New England Enlightenment Half-way Covenant Headright System
Indentured Servitude Joint-Stock Companies King Philip's War John Locke
Mercantilism Navigation Acts Pequot War Pueblo Revolt Quaker
Salem Witch Trials Salutary Neglect Scots-Irish Immigration Stono Rebellion
Trans-Atlantic Print Culture Triangular Trade Virginia Company Voltaire

UNIT 3:

Abigail Adams Alexander Hamilton Alien and Sedition Acts Anti-Federalist
Articles of Confederation Benjamin Franklin Bill of Rights Common Sense Deism
Democratic-Republican Federalism Federalist George Washington
Great Compromise Iroquois Confederation John Adams
Northwest Ordinance Marquis de Lafayette Proclamation of 1763 Quasi-War
Republican Motherhood Separation of Powers Shays's Rebellion
Sons of Liberty Stamp Act 3/5 Compromise Thomas Jefferson Townshend Acts
Virginia & Kentucky Resolutions Virtual Representation Washington's Farewell Address
Whiskey Rebellion XYZ Affair

UNIT 4:

Abolition American System Andrew Jackson Angelina & Sarah Grimke
Battle of Tippecanoe Cotton Gin Dorothea Dix Era of Good Feelings Erie Canal
Frederick Douglass Horace Mann Hudson River School of Painting Impressment
Indian Removal Interchangeable Parts Know-Nothings Louisiana Purchase
Lowell Mill Girls Peculiar Institution Manifest Destiny Marbury v. Madison
Market Revolution Missouri Compromise Monroe Doctrine Mormons
Nat Turner's Rebellion Oneida Commune Seneca Falls Convention
Sojourner Truth Shakers Temperance Transcendentalism
Turnpike War of 1812 William Lloyd Garrison

Main Course

CONDUCT AN ORAL HISTORY INTERVIEW with a relative or family friend TO ARCHIVE WITH THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS.

All you need is the StoryCorps app (available for Andriod or Iphone). You will need the permission of your parent to agree to the terms of the app. Choose someone to interview that has wisdom or a life story you would like to learn about or share. Begin by reviewing "How it works" in the app. Next, choose the + to "prepare an interview." You may review questions to help you choose questions to direct your interview. Look over the "Helpful Hints" and you are ready to record!

You do not have to publish your interview to the Library of Congress if you do not want to. You can email me the link instead.

Dessert

CHOOSE YOUR SECOND OPTION FROM THE APPETIZER MENU.

I would like to use my extra credit to... (Circle 1)

1. Add 10 points to _____ Test 2. Exempt my lowest quiz 3. Replace my two lowest daily grades with a 100% (list below):